

COMMUNICATION

IS A

TWO-WAY RESPONSIBILITY

Employees should expect leaders to communicate clearly, but employees also have a role.

CLEARER TOGETHER.
STRONGER TOGETHER.

EMPLOYEES HAVE A ROLE TO PLAY

ASK QUESTIONS

Don't hesitate to ask when something is unclear.

LISTEN FOR UPDATES

Pay attention to communications and stay informed.

SEEK CLARIFICATION

Make sure you truly understand what is changing and why.

AVOID SPREADING RUMORS

Rely on facts, not assumptions or hearsay.

SHARE CONCERNS RESPECTFULLY

Speak up in a constructive way if you have concerns.

GIVE FEEDBACK

Share what is working, what is not, and ideas for improvement.

CONFIRM EXPECTATIONS

Ensure you know what is expected of you and by when.

A PRACTICAL MINDSET:

“If I don't understand the change, I should ask before I assume.”

THAT ONE HABIT CAN PREVENT A LOT OF UNNECESSARY FRUSTRATION.
